Anderson who has been working for Lee Savely, a prominent rancher of Butter Creek, 6 miles west of Stanfield, was discovered this morning shortly after 5 o'clock in one corner of the bunkhouse by his employer. His forehead had been pierced by a .22 calibre rifle bullet. He was fully dressed, and the belief is expressed that he shot himself after getting up this morning.

Coroner J. T. Brown was called to the Savely home early this morning, and he brought Anderson back to
